Use of Public Meeting Spaces Policy

I. OVERVIEW

Barrington Public Library (the Library) makes available the use of its meeting spaces to the community for civic, cultural, and educational purposes. Meeting spaces are not available for personal or social purposes, including, but not limited to, birthday parties, weddings, memorials, or the benefit or use of private individuals, or for fundraising purposes, except to benefit the Library.

The Board of Trustees of the Library subscribes to the tenets of the American Library Association’s Library Bill of Rights, Article VI, which states, “Libraries which make exhibit spaces and meeting rooms available to the public they serve should make such facilities available on an equitable basis, regardless of the beliefs or affiliations of individuals or groups requesting their use.” All events held at the Library’s meeting spaces must be open and accessible to any and all individuals who may wish to attend.

Use of a meeting room does not in any way constitute an endorsement of the group’s policies or beliefs by the Library. The Library may not be identified as a sponsor of the event or group.

Use of the Library’s meeting spaces signifies acceptance of all of the terms and conditions of use laid out in this, and any other applicable policy. The Library’s meeting spaces are managed by the Office of Public Programming and the Library Director. The Library Board of Trustees reserves the sole right to interpret and enforce this policy.
